

I must protest Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to air an obviously partisan movie length campaign ad : Stolen Honor. This is NOT news, nor is it a real documentary, but rather anti-Kerry propaganda, as well as a certifiable campaign contribution. How much is air time worth on the Sinclair network, that is the ratio of dollars to minutes, and how much in those dollars is Sinclair allowed to contribute to the Bush campaign? I think this is a valid question, and is worthy of investigation.
